

Littleton Independent

New exhibit shows where they've been

"Shenyang Market," a watercolor by Pat Spelic, is Best of Show winner in "Places We've Been" at The Depot Arts Center. Courtesy photo.

Posted 3/11/10

"Shenyang Market," a watercolor by Pat Spelic won the Juror's Choice Award in "Places We've Been," a new exhibit, by Littleton Fine Art Guild members, running through April 10 at the Depot Art Center Gallery, 2069 W. Powers Ave., Littleton. Juror Peggy Morgan Stenmark selected 60 works from the 110 submitted. Other winners: Best of Show: "Shopping," oil by Marilyn Thompson; 1st place: "Rocky Mountain National Park" pastel by Marietta Van Orman; 2nd Place: Japanese Garden— a Drop of Water," watercolor by Karla Horst; 3rd Place: "Trainer on Killer Orca Whale," photograph by Jan Fuiks; Honorable Mentions: Joe Bonita, Jennifer Riefenberg, Kate Wyman, Bob Dando and Marge McMonagle.

Gallery hours: 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesdays through Saturdays. 303-795-0781.