

John Cieraszynski received a BA Degree in Fine Art from Valparaiso University in 1965 and worked for many years in the Oil Industry as a Draftsman.

John's Interest in the Fine Art began upon winning a Purchase Award from Lutheran Brotherhood and his Painting is in their Permanent traveling collection.

In 1980 John created JC Graphics Studios to extend his creative abilities. He worked mostly for Oil and Gas Companies, Architects and Firms that needed Graphic Presentation, Logo's and Brochures. John taught Design, Brochure Layout and Commercial Art at Rocky Mountain School of Art. John taught various watercolor workshops in Aurora and in the Denver Area.

Presently, John teaches Architectural Graphics, Architectural Design and Model Building at Arapahoe Community College.

For most of his adult life John has continued to perfect his skills in the Graphic and Fine Format.

John considers himself basically a self-taught fine artist and has participated in several watercolor workshops and has refined his skills in the water media format (Watercolor, Gouache and Acrylic)

John finds enjoyment in creating the beautiful landscapes and colors of the Colorado Countryside and Rocky Mountains. You will find John on any Weekend in the Mountains of Colorado photographing and sketching what he would put on canvas.

Many of John's Paintings, Prints and Cards have been purchased by private and commercial companies.

John resides in Denver, Colorado with his wife Mary and can be reached at:

Phone: 303-912-3783

E-mail: artbyjc@msn.com

Website: www.artbyjohnski.com

Memberships:

Colorado Watercolor Society, Gilpin County Art Association, Littleton Fine Art Guild.