“Our Town,” the newest exhibit at Littleton’s Depot Arts Center, challenged Littleton Fine Arts Guild members to paint a scene from their hometown, which in many cases is Littleton.

Viewers will also find glimpses of Chicago, St. Louis, etc., according to guild president Peggy Dietz. Artist David Wicks was juror and gave awards to: Best of Show, Pat Dall, “Pumpkins in the Pantry: Littleton Museum;” First, Brian Serff for “Littleton Town Hall;” Second, Janice Warriner for “Art Critic;” Third, Brian Serff for “Littleton Depot.” Honorable Mentions went to: Joe Bonita, Marge McMonagle, Janice Warriner, Rita Bentley (2).

“Our Town” will run until April 3 in the historic Santa Fe Depot at 2069 W. Powers Ave., Littleton. The hours now include Sundays: 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesdays through Sundays. 303-795-0781. Admission is free. All artwork is for sale.
